Family Engagement Outcome: Family Well-being

Video Library

The ReadyRosie library consists of hundreds of videos showing a variety of real families modeling healthy interactions. Each family operates with unique cultural and individual values and behaviors. ReadyRosie users are exposed to many peer-to-peer opportunities to see how different parents and caregivers bond, interact, and positively influence a child's view of himself as an individual and a member of a family.

Family Workshops

Relationships Matter Family Workshop - Parenting is rewarding and sometimes stressful. In this interactive workshop, families will share, discuss, and explore foundational positive parenting strategies.

Family Engagement Outcome: Positive Parent-Child Relationships

Video Library

The goal of all ReadyRosie videos is to inspire parents and caregivers to invest time in bonding with their children. These bonding experiences provide a safe and fun context for children to practice listening and speaking and learning positive ways to interact with others.

Family Workshops

All ReadyRosie family workshops are designed to be 1-1.5 hours in length and provide opportunities to practice parenting skills in the workshop and beyond the workshop session by the delivery of ongoing weekly content to the home. These workshops also inspire families to utilize the ReadyRosie digital tool to extend learning beyond the workshop and into daily practice.

Family Engagement Outcome: Family Engagement in Transitions

Video Library

ReadyRosie offers content for families of children with ages birth through third grade, to help families navigate the various transitions in early childhood.

Family Workshops

ReadyKindergarten Family Workshop and ReadyPreK Family Workshop - Families explore how they can help their child be "ready" for school and how their home environment is the perfect place to encourage foundational social and emotional skills, motor skills, health skills, and readiness for language and math. These workshops are designed to prepare families for the transition into preschool and the transition from preschool into elementary school.

Family Engagement Outcome: Family Connections to Peers and Community

Family Workshops

All ReadyRosie family workshops are designed to build community and peer connections and connect families to local resources.

Family Engagement Outcome: Families as Advocates and Leaders

Video Library

ReadyRosie SHARE platform builds communication and relationships between family and teacher, which has proven to be a foundation for family leadership and advocacy. ReadyRosie equips and inspires families to be their child's first teacher. Research shows that when families grow in their knowledge around child development and outcomes, they are more confident and more likely to become advocates and leaders in their own school communities.

Family Workshops

Families as Leaders - Families examine leadership concepts and explore their roles as leaders in their homes, their communities, and their schools.
