

A note from your teacher!

Ready Rosie

What is the most important resource for your child to be successful in school?

YOU are your child's most important resource to be successful in school! By taking a few minutes each day to really connect with your child, you are building a strong sense of family and self and you are making wonderful memories.

Your child's mind and heart will be nurtured and ready to learn at school!

Watch the video with your child. If you don't have access to view videos, please read the description below!		Do the activity and mark "We did it!"	Reflect and share: How did it go? What did you learn?
	Building a Fort Work together as a family to design and build a fort with pillows, blankets, and chairs. Enjoy reading books together in your special fort!	<input type="checkbox"/> We Did it!
	Family Poem Ask your child to think of words that describe your family. Create a simple poem that uses these words. Note: It doesn't have to rhyme but it can if you want! Here's a line to get you started: "Our family is ____."	<input type="checkbox"/> We Did it!
	Family Shield Throughout history, shields have been used to protect a person as well as identify the group someone belongs to. Create a family shield together on a piece of paper. Think about what is important to your family and makes you special. Write the words or draw pictures on the shield and keep it as a valuable reminder.	<input type="checkbox"/> We Did it!
